THE COLQUHON INQUEST.

A Verdict of Murder by Some Unknown Person Returned by the Coroner's Jury.

Some Sensational Evidence Given by Mrs. McDonough and Her Daughter.

O'Connor's Dark Threats Against the Deceased---The Remains Buried Yesterday.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 24.—The jury returned a verdict last evening in the Colquhon case that deceased came by his death at the hands of some person or persons unknown. The evidence of Mrs. McDonough and her daughter, Mary Turner, in the afternoon was rather sensational. Mrs. Mary Emma McDonough of the Richmond Hotel, sworn, said: Knew deceased; saw him last on Thursday evening in the dining room. Deceased asked me to call him in the morning at 9 o'clock; went to his room and knocked three times but got no reply; opned the door and found the bed had not been slept in. When I left the dining room, I went into the bar. Had conversation with a party named O'Connor at 10:20 in the room the night deceased disappeared. O'Connor said he had been making remarks in the bar on the reputation of the house and Colquhon had taken it up, and he (O'Connor) wished her to say nothing about it to her husband, who was not at home. Witness said Colquhon would tell him if she did not; he said Colquhon would tell no tales, that he would knock him over board. She told him to leave the room and then shut the door in his face. Saw O'Connor at noon next day and asked him if he had seen Colquhon. He answered we would never see him again unless we saw his remains and we might find them somewhere. Colquhon was not very drunk; he was perfectly capable of doing any business." Mary Turner, daughter of the previous witness sworn, said: "Knew Colquhon, saw him last alive on 28th January in the dining room; he left the room at 9:30, saying he was going to bed. He left word with mother to call him in the morning. Next day I spoke to Joseph O'Connor about Colquhon; asked him if he had seen him. He replied: 'Yes, but that no one else would see him unless he saw his body, the—s—o—ab——, I pushed him overboard. There is another one I would do the same to if I got hold of him, Rolstead by name.' About a week before Colquhon disappeared O'Connor asked me to go out driving with him; told him I could not without papa's consent. This was given, as father thought he was a respectable man. On the way he made indecent proposals; I rejected, and told him to drive straight home. After that had very little to say to him. Began giving me and the house a bad name, and Mr. Colquhoun took it up, saying he would tell Mr. McDonough when he came home." The girl throughout corroborated her mother's evidence. O'Connor left three days afterwards and has not been seen since.

A boarder was called to testify hearing O'Connor say in the dining room, "That's all right; he will tell no tales." All the words were heard. Mr. McDonough then took the stand and explained his relations with deceased, of whom he thought a great deal. O'Connor paid his board in advance. Always thought him respectable until the revelations about his step-daughter.

Colquhoun's remains were interred yesterday afternoon. Friends in Scotland will be communicated with.

The Walla Walla arrived this morning with a cargo of 446 tons for eastern points.

Probably arrangements will be made whereby the bulk of the opium from the Orient carried this way now, will be carried by way of Suez canal.

Jay Gould Gives $10,000 to Presbyterians

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Mr. Jay Gould and his daughter, Miss Helen Gould, were host and hostess last evening at a reception given in their residence, 579 5th avenue, to a committee of the Presbytery of New York on church extension and sustentation. Nearly all the members of the committee to the number of a hundred or more were present. Mr. Gould received the guests with his daughter at the entrance to the drawing room, and his three sons, Edward, George and Howard assisted in entertaining them. The purpose of the reception, as was explained during the course of the evening, was to raise money to aid the work the church extension and it was at the request of the committee that the meeting was held at Gould's house. When the guests had all arrived, at about 9 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Jno. R. Paxton, whose church Mr. Gould attends, took the floor and made a short speech in Gould's name. Mr. Gould's modesty, he said, prevented him from speaking for himself, so, as Minister Mr. Paxton welcomed them. Mr. Gould had told him that after many years of deliberation he had become convinced that the Presbyterian church was the best and truest religion and organization in this country and that its work of church extension was the widest and most hopeful for humanity. The Rev. Dr. George Alexander then spoke and among other things said: "I have been strictly enjoined to speak of nothing but money. You are all rich men here, and we want money from you. But we do not assume a suppliant attidue. We need money but not half so much as you have to give." Dr. Alexander went on to talk of the great power of money as energy stored up for ready use. Many men, however, he said, get so carried away in the pursuit of wealth and get the habits so fastened to them as to loose sight of the higher duty of dispensing the money they acquired. After speaking for some minutes in that train he turned to Mr. Gould and the other guests: "I hope I have not spoken in such a way as to give offence to guests or to our host Mr. Gould." At the close of Dr. Alexander's speech Dr. Vanorden announced that subscription cards would be distributed and he hoped they would be filled out liberally. As an incentive, he said, he would announce that he had already received four subscriptions of $500, $100, $1000, $500, one of which he said was opposite the name of Miss Gould. A minute after the subscription cards had been passed around, Mr. Vanorden took the floor again to announce that a number of $1000 subscriptions had been handed in to him and that the host, Mr. Gould, had subscribed $10,000. This announcement was greeted with hearty applause. Supper was served after the meeting. Many of those present took the subscription cards with them.

CARDINAL RAMPOLLA.

The Chicago World's Fair Commissioners have secured the cordial co-operation of the Pope, who will send exhibits to the exposition of next year and will aid it all he can, among other ways by issuing a pontifical letter in support of it. At a meeting of the commissioners and Cardinal Rampolla preliminary arrangements have been made with regard to the Papal exhibit. The antiquarian, the historian, the churchman, the literary man and the artist are interested deeply in the announcement of the Pope's practical interest to the World's Fair at Chicago.

Rampolla, the Pope's "right hand man," is a Sicilian forty-eight years old. His attainments are those of the profound theologian and acute diplomatist. In his private life he is the severe ascetic. He has been Papal Secretary of State about five years.

Gen. Enriquez Shot

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The Herald's special cablegram fram San Salvador, Guatemala, says: The shooting of General Miguel Enriquez, at Zacapa, Guatemala, the other day has created a good deal of bitter comment here and started stories discreditable to the President Barillas. The account sent by the Guatemalan authorities is to the effect that Enriquez, who was one of the rival Conservative candidates for the presidency, organized a revolt against the Government, was defeated and shot as a traitor. Widely different is the report that has reached this city from the opponents in Guatemala of the present administration. It is alleged by them that President Barillas bore a personal spite toward Enriquez and in revenge issued secret orders that he be shot at his Hacienda under the pretext that he was at the head of a revolutionary faction. The two brothers of Gen. Enriquez were informed of what had been done and, realizing that no time was to be lost, fled and joined him. They armed all the servants on the Hacienda with guns and revolvers and resolved to sell their lives dearly. The Government troops soon arrived upon the scene and to their surprise met with a most desperate resistance. A regular battled followed. Gen. Enriquez had two brothers and two servants killed and three more of their little party were wounded before the building in which they were intrenched was carried by the troops. How gallantly the Enriquez fought is shown by the loss by the Government forces of two officers and the killing or wounding of 11 soldiers. It is also rumored toat it would not be unexpected if Barillas would dispose of all the presidential candidates in the same way including Gen. Reina Barros. Salvador is perfectly quiet.

World's Fair.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Lieut. Harlow, the World's fair commissioner to Chile, will leave this country within a few days. There is no doubt if another man was sent there Chileans might be induced to make some showing at the fair. If there was no official exhibit prominent wine growers and those interested in wines would participate in the affair.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The Herald's Washington special says: The dispatch to-day alleging that Consul McCreery and Lieut. Harlow were concerned in certain questionable transactions in Valparaiso, Chile, attracted considerable attention here. No official information with regard to it had been received at toe state department, or any other intelligence for that matter. The navy department people are loath to believe that Lieut. Harlow has done wrong and are disinclined to credit any statement in the alleged irregularities of Consul McCreery in Valparaiso. Those in the department who know the Lieutenant best say that he will probably have no difficulty in clearing himself from suspicion. Lieut. Harlow's record in the navy is a good one. He entered as a midshipman about 11 years ago and has seen nearly eight years' service. He was selected in 1880 as World's fair commissioner to Chile partly on account of his recognized ability and previous good record, and his work in that capacity is understood to have given entire satisfaction.

Fastest on Record.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24. — Steamship Majestic arrived after a remarkable trip. She covered 2766 miles in 5 days, 20 hours, 22 minutes. This is the fastest time ever made in that distance.

FRENCH POLITICAL CRISIS.

M. De Freycinet's Health Prevents His Endeavoring to Form a New Ministry.

The British Troops Have Sharp Fighting With the Natives in Upper Burmah.

Count Tolstoi's Philanthropic Enterprises Cut Short by the Government.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—There is no solution of the ministerial crisis. M. De Freycinet declares if he wished to enter upon the task of forming a new ministry his health would not permit it. Unfortunately, M. Rouvier, the statesman last called upon by the President to organize the cabinet, is ill.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—President Carnot has entrusted the forming of a cabinet to M. Rouvier, who is trying to include most of the present ministers in the cabinet. Freycinet, Ribot, Constans and Devell have agreed to remain.

Fighting in Upper Burmah.

The British loss was four natives killed and 26 wounded, including Lt. Munn. Capt. Davis will attack the principal stockade to-morrow to enable him to join the Yule column. The Kachyens had maintained a continuous fire upon the Sadone garrison which sallied out and assisted Capt. Davis.

Count Tolstoi Must not Criticize.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—A dispatch to the Standard from Moscow says Count Tolstoi, who has been engaged in relieving distress in the famine district, has been ordered by the government to return to his estate in consequence of a letter concerning the famine recently published in London as written by him. Countess Tolstoi denies that her husband is the author of the letter.

Motion to Expel De Cobain.

THE FISHERIES COMMISSION.

M. M. English Gives Evidence---Cheap Labor a Condition of Success.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Feb. 24.—Marshall M. English, canneryman, contended before the fisheries commission this morning that 25 licenses should be the number granted the canneries, if limited at all. He employed 15 outside licenses several seasons. New canneries should be allowed to start, and old establishments should not suffer a reduction of licenses in consequence. Offal was not injurious to the fisheries or to general health. If disposed of in any other way than dumping into deep water, the cannerymen would be compelled by the expense to go out of the business. If Indian and Chinese cheap labor was not employed by the canneries no profit would be made. The hatchery was a success, and he would like to see it further augmented. Commissioner Wilmot, Secretary Winter and Inspector of Fisheries McNab inspected the hatchery this afternoon. Mr. Wilmot is expected in Westminster on Friday morning, when arrangements will be made as to the movements of the commission.

NANAIMO, Feb. 23.—The junior association football club of the Y.M.C.A. in this city have accepted a challenge from a like team of Victoria to play a friendly game at the capital on Saturday, March 5th. The challenge has been accepted.

The fire department has of late been fixing up the old hall as the members have come to the conclusion that the City Council means to do nothing towards the erection of a new fire hall for them.

THE TILL-TAPPING CASE.

Frank Leigh, who was charged at the police court yesterday with till-tapping, was brought before Magistrate Planta yesterday and remanded until Friday next.

A CONCERT AND DANCE.

The concert and dance which was given at St. Paul's Institute last evening, being announced as the last to be given before Lent, induced a large number of persons to put in an appearance and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

UNKNOWN MAN BADLY BEATEN.

Some unknown man was badly abused on Wallace street on Sunday, and his cries for help were heard by Constable O'Connell, who, on going to his assistance, found he had been so badly punished that he could not see out of his eyes. The matter is being investigated.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

West Huron Election---Mr. Laurier at Work--- A Postoffice Thief

OTTAWA, Feb. 24.—The Liberals attribute losing West Huron to the Catholic vote, which formerly went for Cameron, but has now gone for Patterson. The latter's majority is 20.

Hon. Wilfred Laurier arrived this afternoon and took up his residence along with Mrs. Laurier, at the Russell for the session. The Liberal leader spent all afternoon in his room at the House of Commons preparing for the work of the session. He looks pale as the result of his recent illness, but says he is in pretty good health and intends keeping up his spirits despite the reverses to the party of late.

A large number of members and senators have arrived, and the train from Toronto which comes in to-night is crowded with western members.

Thos. Paquin, assistant postmaster at Hull, was arrested to-day charged with robbing the mail. The arrest was due to decoy letters sent out recently. Large sums of money have been missing from time to time for years past. Two years ago a letter from E. B. Eddy containing $500 was taken from the postoffice, and no trace of it was ever found.

THE BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING

The First Regular Meeting of the Building Association Held this Afternoon.

The first regular meeting of the shareholders of the Board of Trade building association, limited liability, was held at the Board of Trade rooms this afternoon. Mr. A. C. Flummerfelt occupied the chair and the following gentlemen were present: L. McQuade, L. Redon, R. Ward, A. W. More, A. M. Muir, A. G. Sargison, A. L. Belyea, H. F. Heisterman, C. E. Renouf, Foster Macgurn, J. H. Falconer, P. Steele, T. C. Sorby, J. H. Todd, J. Holland and Jas. Bryce.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting. They were unable to do anything in a legal manner as the papers were not yet ready. They could, however, hold an informal meeting. He gave a few facts in regard to the building. The property was purchased in 1891 for $11,200. As the board could not hold property except for their own use it was decided to incorporate the building association, which was done. The building committee report recommending the acceptance of A. M. Muir's plans was accepted, and the building committee went out soliciting. The amount subscribed by citizens was $21,200 and $5000 had been added to this by the board.

Mr. F. Macgurn thought it would not be well to start in debt. There were only 140 shares to be taken up.

Some discussion on the power of the board to hold property followed, it being explained, however, that the board intended to apply for incorporation.

Mr. Renouf explained that the profits of the company will go to the shareholders, not to the Board of Trade.

Mr. Macgurn asked for information from the committee to solicit subscriptions. He thought the whole $40,000 should be subscribed.

Mr. Todd said the committee had made a pretty good canvass, but he did not think the field was exhausted. He thought that subscriptions would continue to come in until the building was completed.

Mr. Renouf thought all members of the building association should help to obtain subscribers. There are a great many gentlemen who live at their houses who have not been seen as yet.

Mr. Ward said he thought the director's idea was to commence work as soon as the company was incorporated. The meeting then adjourned.

Those Reciprocity Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—In the Senate to-day Mr. Sheridan, of the committee on foreign relations, reported back favorably the resolution calling upon the President, if not inconsistent with the public interest, to communicate to the Senate the papers regarding the recent negotiations between the British Government, the Dominion of Canada and the U. S. concerning a reciprocity treaty between Canada and the U. S. The resolution was adopted.

Steamships Ashore.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 24.—A dispatch just received from Ex-Moora states that a Spanish steamer is ashore on Hog Island. The sea is running heavy. The steamship's name is not given. Life savers are trying to make connection with a line with the ship.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A Fort Monroe dispatch states the British steamer Benavasa, St. John, Nfd., is reported ashore on Willoughby Spit.

Nominations by the President.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The President sent to the Senate to-day the following nominations: W. B. Gilbert of Oregon, United States circuit judge for the ninth judicial circuit; H. M. Smith of Massachusetts, supervisor treasury, vice L. W. Reid, resigned; C. F. Roberts, collector of customs for the district of Humboldt, California.

To-day the police entered the house of a Spaniard named Chaloret and found hidden in various parts large dynamite cartridges and five boxes of explosives. Chaloret was taken to the police station. The police have arrested another anarchist in the suburbs where they found cartridges and ammunition of various kinds.

ENGLAND'S GRAND OLD MAN.

An Incident Illustrating the Great Man's Fondness for Little Children.

A Tribute to Mrs. Gladstone—What the Grand Old Leader Owes to His Consort.

Written for THE TIMES by Sir Edwin Arnold, K.C.I.E., C.S.I.

(Concluded from yesterday.)

When you grasp Mr. Gladstone's right hand, always stretched out with unaffected warmth of greeting, you perceive in the contact that he has lost a forefinger. The fact is that when a youth shooting with his uncle he blew it away from the muzzle of the old-fashioned gun of that period, which was dangerous, indeed, for any incautious sportsman. If a spark or particle of burning wadding happened to be left in the breech of the ancient muzzle loader it was always possible that the powder charge when poured in would explode, and you would then be lucky if it did not communicate flame to the powder flask. Young Mr. Gladstone showed on that occasion the fortitude and patience which are part of his fine character, but the accident exemplifies a certain inherent awkwardness in his nature. Strong as a lion, as his exploits in woodcraft sufficiently prove, he has never been particularly agile or quick in body, any more than he is witty in mind. Perhaps the one arch defect in this complex and opulent nature is his lack of humor. I never heard nor did anybody else with whom I am acquainted, hear a bon mot or brilliant repartee fall from those wonderful lips, and this is attributed, possibly, to his Scotch extraction and to the tremendous perennial earnestness of his character. He seems to have no time, or else no capacity to see the ridiculous side of things, which, however, is a rather serious deficiency, because just as the liveliest laughter lives next to the most tender tears, so a perception of the absurd aspect of human doings closely belongs to a sagacious comprehension of the safe management of them. It was in this point that Mr. Disraeli and Mr. Gladstone stood at opposite poles of human feeling. "All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players." Such was Lord Beaconsfield's pretty constant belief and platform of conduct, while Mr. Gladstone, his illustrious opponent, was always so terribly in earnest that the whole country felt the sting of the epigram, when Disraeli once compared the right honorable gentleman's ministry, after his triumphs were over, to "a range of extinct volcanoes." Quod vult, valde vult. What he desires he desires imperatively, solemnly, blindly; and no quality has impressed modern public opinion so much as this resistless, devouring ardor of the Grand Old Man. It is a force, indeed, which often sweeps away opposition from its path.

As waves beneath
A vessel under sail, so men obeyed
And fell below his stem.

EAGER FOR MAJORITIES.

Especially did he thrill the whole country when in his speech upon the Reform bill he spoke of the unenfranchised presiduum as "our flesh and blood," and no words can describe the force and majesty of the finish of that speech, when in view of a present defeat, but of a future assured victory, he exclaimed in tones more like those of a Hebrew prophet than an English statesman, "The silent forces of the time are on our side," as, indeed, they proved to be.

If intellectually the lack of the sense of humor has marred the otherwise varied and magnificent completeness of Mr. Gladstone's character, what has at once enhanced and detracted from his fame and historical record as a statesman has been his supreme skill and irresistible instincts as a parliamentary manager. He cannot help playing the game with the resources and devices of an accomplished strategical hand. The first necessity of political triumph is naturally a majority, and all the qualities of Mr. Gladstone's temperament focus, in spite of his conscientiousness and high inspiration, upon the necessary efforts to create and preserve that. It was such an impulse that led him at Greenwich, some twenty years ago, wildly to promise the abolition of the income tax. And I hope to be forgiven if I state the belief that it was this which first half-consciously led him to take up the Irish question, since without the 60 or 70 votes controlled by Mr. Parnell a majority seemed then impossible. I am not saying here that Mr. Gladstone acted then or ever acted against his principles, but that he has the faculty, common to all rich and complex natures, of easily persuading himself that what he desires is on all grounds desirable, and the speed and sweep of his eagle-winged spirit is such in all affairs of state that he very rapidly passes the turning place where it is possible to change the direction of his flight.

As little do I wish to indicate that in lacking the faculty of humor he is without what is akin to it, gayety and brightness of soul. The contrary is distinctly the case. Nobody can appear more lively and genial in conversation and more delightful in the relations of life. His smile is like summer's sunshine, his interest in the most unimportant and external matters lively and immediate, and his home, I know, one of the happiest and brightest in the world.

Listen to yet one more extract from the letter of my friend. Dating from Hawarden he writes:—"I left the castle on Monday. Old and familiar friend as I am with all the Gladstones, it is impossible to tell you in words what that marvellous and utterly unparalleled human phenomenon now appears in the splendid serenity and brightness of his life's evening. One little incident I did not mention in my last shall be cited. Mr. Gladstone's second daughter, Mary Drew, who must be nearly or quite forty years old, had her first living baby about twenty months ago. It came like the child of a miracle, unexpectedly; for her first little one was born dead and nearly entailed the death of her mother, so that nothing seemed less probable than that she should ever give birth to another child. You will readily imagine, therefore, what the event of such a baby meant in such an affectionate household.

FOND OF CHILDREN.

The little girl is a chartered libertine, the undisputed chatelaine, in fact, of Hawarden Castle. She can just toddle about from room to room, and she brings a ray of sunlight with her wherever she goes. I never saw a prettier sight than when she just now ran through the open door, which divides the drawing room from the Grand Old Man's sanctuary, and, pulling at the lapels of his dressing gown, drew him imperiously away from Homer or the Blue Books, or whatever was engaging him. The first intimation we heard in the next room was a peal of laughter on Mr. Gladstone's part at the obvious necessity of capitulating to that daring invasion, as musical and hearty as ever came from human lips, for his laugh as you well know, is one of his greatest attractions. Presently the Grand Old Man and the little child, separated by eighty years of time, come hand and hand together into the drawing room. Mrs. Gladstone runs to the piano and strikes up a lively waltz tune, and in a second the two partners are dancing together, the Grand Old Man putting into his pirouettes a lot of funny, old fashioned little steps, learned of our great grandmothers seventy-five years ago, which it was impossible to view without delight and applause, although so much pathos mingled with comedy in the touching scene."

A WIFE WORTHY OF HIM.

But signal as these qualities of Mr. Gladstone are, grand as his opportunities have been, and splendid—with all its mistakes and perversities—his record, he has had only one supreme advantage which heaven bestows only on the most fortunate and deserving. He has had a noble and faithful wife, the fast friend the faithful protectress, the sure support of her illustrious husband's years of toil and glory. Anybody looking even now on the comely face of "Katty," as she is always called at Hawarden by all except the young folks, would know that she had been a most beautiful woman; and when she and her sister were married on the same day at Hawarden to Mr. Gladstone and Lord Lyttleton respectively, never probably had two such handsome young brides been seen in the length and breath of the principality. The occasion was celebrated among other ways by the publication of a volume of Greek and Latin translations dedicated In duplices Nuptias, "to the two-fold nuptials," and while that book shows the versatility of Mr. Gladstone's learning in his equally skillful command of Italian and Latin poetry, it stamps Lord Lyttleton as the very best writer in Greek verse that we have ever possessed outside professional scholars. Mr. Gladstone's titled brother-in-law died, unhappily, by his own act in a frenzy of delirium produced by fever, but the light of an unbroken felicity has always fallen, as it well deserved to fall, upon the wedded life of William Ewart Gladstone and Catherine Glynne. Her solicitude for the noble life, with whose solace and felicity she has been charged, is upon all occasions touching, but occasionally becomes sorely tried by the irrepressible energies of her illustrious lord. Dining recently in the company of the distinguished pair, Mrs. Gladstone said to me:—"I commission you, Sir Edwin, to-night to keep my husband from talking to the opposite side of the table. He has a great speech to make soon and his voice is a little hoarse with a hardly departing cold. Engage him as much as you possibly can in whispered conversation."

Never did a faithful person more earnestly devote himself to a duty than I to that. I cheerfully allowed my turtle soup to grow cold and took little or no notice of a delicious mayonnaise while I humbly sought to lead the thoughts and talk of Mr. Gladstone into paths which I imagined would be most alluring. In the moment of apparent success somebody dropped on the other side of the table the remark that the Phœnicians were a Semite people. The webs I had woven round my eminent prisoner were broken like spider threads. He flew with quick intellectual swoop at the theorist, for he seems to hold the view that the Phœnicians were of another stock, and all I could do was to turn to Mrs. Gladstone and penitently beat my breast, while she smiled a gentle forgiveness, and Mr. Gladstone, as is his splendid custom, prenait la parole and kept it, to the delight and profit of the whole table.

HE WOULD ENJOY AMERICA.

With all my heart I wish the right honorable gentleman would and could come to America. He wants to come, and might face the slight fatigues of the journey without fear of result as those alone are concerned. He would dearly like to see with his own eyes the greatness of this country and its astonishing vitality of growth and solid solidity; the fair republic where many a cherished idea of his has fuller play than with us, and where he would assuredly meet with a reception worthy at once of this generous and most hospitable country, and of his unmatched personal and political eminence, his lofty and marvellous qualities of mind and heart.

He has the happy gift of sleeping whenever he wishes to sleep, of changing his current of thought at will, entirely banishing from his mind what previously engaged him, and if he can journey to Biarritz, no doubt, time and affairs permitting, he could just as well journey to New York and Chicago. But no! I retract my aspiration. Although I am unfortunately his political opponent, I am also his admiring, grateful friend and his sincere well-wisher. In this land of large good-will and boundless heartiness of welcome, I am afraid you would very soon kill him with kindnesses, and I think I shall therefore tell Mr. Gladstone when I see him again, not to come to America, while he still sustains his political conflicts and ambitions.

THE SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

Valuable Views Exchanged and Much Business Transacted in a Very Short Time.

Trustee McConnan is Troubled and Rises to a Question of Privilege.

Last evening a special meeting of the Board of School Trustees was held in the City Hall. Trustee Morrow, who had not, by reason of illness, attended any of the meetings for the past three months, was present. There were also present Chairman Hayward and Trustees Lovell, McKay, Saunders, McConnan and Richards.

Secretary Williams read the minutes of the last meeting, which were, on motion, adopted.

The secretary then read the following

COMMUNICATIONS:

S. D. Pope, LL. D., Superintendent of Education, wrote as follows:

Victoria, February 15th, 1892.

DEAR SIR.—Kindly inform me at an early date of the views of the trustees as to the number of additional teachers for which they consider provision ought to be made in the estimates of 1892-93, and oblige. Yours truly,

S. D. POPE,
Supt. of Education.

B. Williams, Esq. Secretary Board of Trustees.

Trustee Richards thought that the Government should now provide the salary, given to duly appointed teachers, for the monitors who were teaching in the 4th and 8th divisions of the boys' school. They were now doing the work of teachers and should be paid accordingly.

Chairman Hayward—I quite agree with you, Mr. Richards, that the monitors should be paid as well as other teachers who are doing precisely the same work. But the communication before us has more particular reference to the additional teachers that the Board thinks may be required for the ensuing year. It would not be wise to place new teachers in the Central School, which is even now crowded. We should encourage additions to the ward schools and make suitable provision for the new graded school which was provided for in last year's estimates.

After some discussion Trustee Richards moved, seconded by Trustee McConnan, "that the letter be received and filed and that the Government be asked to make provision for salaries as in this year's estimates; for the appointment of teachers instead of monitors in all the schools; and for three additional teachers to be placed as may be required by the Board."

Mr. Burns, Principal of the High School, wrote as follows:—

HIGH SCHOOL, VICTORIA,
22nd Feb. 1892.

To the Chairman of the Victoria School Board:

SIR,—I beg to take the liberty through you, of requesting the Board to consider the question of some increase in the salary of the head master of the High School.

The amount at present given does not compare favorably with that offered for similar positions in the eastern provinces, nor is it, indeed, an equivalent for the responsibility, especially now that your school has increased to four departments; and will, I trust, continue to increase rapidly in the future.

Awaiting your favorable consideration, I am Sir,

Yours sincerely,
WILLIAM BURNS, Principal.

Trustee Richards thought it would sound better if Mr. Burns had waited until it was ascertained what his qualifications really were, and whether he was competent to fill the position. He, therefore, moved that the communication be received and filed.

Chairman Hayward did not agree with Mr. Richards. The board should look at this matter, not as it affected Mr. Burns, but as it affected the principalship of the High School. Even if Mr. Burns had to be removed, it would be much easier to get a thoroughly competent principal if the salary were higher than it is at present.

Trustee Richards said that Mr. Burns had come here on the understanding that he would receive a salary of $110. He had been here only three weeks and it was not yet known by the board whether he was worth $110.

Trustee McConnan held that the board should have regard to the position and not to the gentleman occupying it for the time being. It was well known that the salary now given would not sufficiently compensate the party holding the position. The estimates for the ensuing year would soon be laid before the legislature and it would be prudent for the board to recommend an increase of salary to the department at as early a date as possible. He did not know what expectations Mr. Burns had when he came here.

Trustee Lovell—Mr. Burns was a free agent and accepted his position freely. Was any inducement offered him to come to Victoria?

Chairman Hayward—No.

Trustee Richards—Not so far as the Board knows.

Trustee Morrow thought it strange that Mr. Burns should have come here, knowing that the salary was lower than that given in the high schools of Ontario. He could not see any reason why the board should be asked to grant an increase. He thought the salary given here was quite as large as that of similar institutions in Ontario.

Trustee Richards then amended his motion so as to make it read, "That the communication be received and filed and that Mr. Burns be informed that the board does not, at the present time, feel justified in asking that an increase be made to the salary of the principal of the high school."

Trustee Morrow seconded Mr. Richard's motion.

Chairman Hayward—I am sorry gentlemen, that I cannot agree with you. I believe a high salary will, at any time, enable us to secure the best talent whenever a vacancy occurs.

Trustee Lovell said that it did not follow that, because the salary was high the recipient of the salary was above the average. A similar matter had been considered by the council and the conclusion arrived at was that very often a moderate salary could secure the services of a very competent man.

Trustee McKay—What was the salary of the late principal?

Chairman Hayward—$110.

Trustee McKay—Well, leave it there.

The motion was then carried.

W. H. Huxtable, the janitor of the High, Boys' and Girls' schools, asked for additional help. He had to be constantly attending to the furnace and heating apparatus, and had 32 rooms and numerous stairways and passageways to keep clean and tidy.

Trustees Lovell and Richards stated that Mr. Huxtable was busy from early morning to night and that, at present, he had to provide assistance at his own expense. On the suggestion of the chairman, a supplementary sum of $50 was voted for extra help for the remainder of the term.

REPORTS.

The committee on heating apparatus reported, recommending that $25 be paid Messrs. Colbert & Warner for services rendered; that specifications be prepared and tenders called for the work, to be completed during the midsummer holidays. The report was adopted.

Chairman Hayward said that he had visited the Central School and found the work progressing very satisfactorily. The new room in the High School would be ready by the 1st of March. The new stairway opened into a large room over the High School, which could be utilized for desks, chairs and other furniture that were not needed at present. The room only required to be floored and have a skylight put in, which could be done for $230.

Trustee Richards moved, seconded by Trustee McKay, that the matter be referred to the architect with power to have the repairs made at a reasonable price, not to exceed $230. Carried.

GYMNASIUM.

Chairman Hayward thought the Board should take steps to equip the gymnasium that was now under construction. Mr. Offerhaus had, two years ago, given an entertainment whereby $250 was placed to the credit of the gymnasium fund. This was now in the bank subject to the order of Col. Wolfenden.

Trustee Richards moved that the principals of the High and Boys' schools be empowered to deal with the matter, but on being reminded by Trustee Lovell that the girls had done more than the boys at the entertainment, he altered his motion so as to make it include the principals of the three schools. The motion was carried.

BILLS.

Sundry bills were referred to the Finance Committee for payment, if found correct, and with the instruction that $750 be paid Jacob Sehl on account.

THE SECRETARY.

There were three applications before the Board. Mr. Williams, who has been acting secretary for four months, was unanimously appointed to the position, although he had not applied for it. The salary will be $25 a month.

"IN A FOG."

When the business of the Board had been transacted and all were preparing to leave, Trustee McConnan rose in his place and said:

"Mr. Chairman, we meet here from time to time and the report of our proceedings is published by three papers. One paper gave a report of the last meeting quite different in shape and in fact from the other papers. I do not intend to make a motion just now. I think it but due to the Board that its transactions be reported truthfully and not for private ends. I merely refer to this matter now. One paper had an account such as did not take into consideration the truth. I say no more now."

The three reporters looked in consternation at one another and then in terror at Mr. McConnan. There was a painful silence for two seconds when

Trustee Morrow said: "I move we adjourn."

Chorus of voices: "Second it."

Chairman: "Carried."

The proceedings then terminated.

THE WATER QUESTION.

As a matter of course, the Colonist sides with the Esquimalt Waterworks Company in its contest with the city for the right of tapping the Goldstream waters. Nor does it take pains to state the question at issue in a straightforward way, or in a way that does justice to the city's case. From our neighbor's assertions it might appear that the Esquimalt Company has only to show that it does not propose to monopolize the water supply in the district spoken of in order to gain the additional privilege it desires. The company, we are told, only wants a portion of the whole, and is willing to let the city have the rest if it needs more than it has now. A little consideration will show how unfair to the city this view of the case is. The company's bill in its present shape simply allows the company to divert Goldstream creek for its own purposes, and wholly ignores the city's rights and interests. As matters stand at present the city has by virtue of previous legislation the right which the company now seeks. That is, the city stands as a prior claimant, and is in the position of dictating to others the terms on which they may use the Goldstream waters. If the company's bill passes the city will be ejected from this controlling position and will be at the mercy of the company. It is surprising that the Colonist should lend its influence to the private company as against the great body of citizens. It is altogether beside the mark to state that the city has an ample supply from its present sources, for the company is in the same position. It is not a greater volume that either party wants, but a greater pressure. The "head" is not sufficient now to force the city water to the highest places where residences are built, without auxiliary pumping, but the tapping of Goldstream at a suitable point would obviate that difficulty. If the company is given its way it will be able to prevent the city from accomplishing that work. The Colonist should for once have been found fighting on the side of the public when their rights are threatened by a private corporation, even if that corporation is somewhat near "the throne."

RAILWAY INCORPORATION.

The Legislature will do well to pass the bill introduced by Mr. Kellie, respecting the incorporation of railway, tramway, telephone and telegraph companies. Its object is to simplify the process by which such companies obtain the powers and privileges necessary for their operations, and few will be found who believe that such simplification is inadvisable. The present system of special legislation for each company of persons who desire to organize and carry on business on the lines specified is cumbrous and unwieldy, while that proposed in Mr. Kellie's measure is convenient. There is, moreover, the argument of precedent in its favor, for the system has been in force in many of the States of the Union for years, and it has in all cases given good satisfaction. The bill at the outset provides that any company desiring to benefit by its provisions must give a guarantee of its bona fides by having a certain percentage of its capital stock subscribed and paid up before it is at liberty to commence business or expropriate lands for its corporate purposes. The percentages of subscribed and paid up stock are left to be fixed by the House in committee. The method of incorporation proposed is in effect that which governs the formation of other joint stock companies, with limitations and modifications to suit the special purposes of such corporate bodies as it deals with. The bill provides that any two or more persons desiring to form a company for any one of the purposes specified shall properly execute a memorandum of association in triplicate, two copies of which are to be left with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and the third retained by themselves. When all the forms and regulations prescribed by the bill shall have been complied with and the necessary fees paid, the company is to be given a certificate of incorporation by the Registrar, and is to have the powers and privileges now conferred by the Legislature on similar companies by special charters. The usual safeguards for the public interest are provided for in the bill, so that no company will be at liberty to infringe upon the people's rights any more than if it were incorporated by a separate act of the Legislature. There are many reasons why the proposed method should be adopted, and none of any great weight appear against it. Clause 14 of the bill contains a provision rendered advisable by the configuration of the province, reading as follows:—

Where it shall so happen that any railway constructed and built under the powers and provisions of this Act shall pass through any narrow pass, which is too narrow for the passage of another line of railway, without entailing great expense, any other railway company proposing to run a railway line which would pass through the same pass or canyon shall be entitled to run their engines, cars, trucks, or other vehicles over and have all other running powers over the said first mentioned line of railway through such pass or canyon, for such a distance as will enable such second railway company to carry out the intention of its promoters, without any unnecessary expense from the fact of the said pass or canyon being already occupied by such first mentioned line of railway.

The succeeding section enacts that that company whose property is thus made use of shall receive suitable compensation, to be defined by arbitration if necessary.

THE ELECTIONS IN ONTARIO.

Yesterday's elections in Ontario indicate a rather remarkable state of politics in that province. In the contest for the Dominion House in West Huron, Mr. M. C. Cameron was defeated by Hon. J. C. Patterson, the new Secretary of State, by a majority of twenty, though last March he carried the seat by a majority of 379. In Kingston Mr. Harty, the Liberal candidate, was elected to the Ontario Legislature by a majority of 500, whereas Mr. Metcalfe, Conservative, had a majority of 29 at the last general election, and was elected to the Commons by the same city only a few weeks ago. The North Renfrew seat in the Ontario House was also carried by the Liberals, in fact there was no Conservative in the field, though Mr. Dunlop, the late member, won it for the Conservatives at the general election. These results would seem to show that there has of late years been a considerable increase in the number of "loose fish," who are strongly inclined to range themselves on what they believe to be the winning side. This tendency naturally asserts itself more strongly in a bye-election than in a general contest, where there is more uncertainty. In West Huron the inclination was undoubtedly strengthened by the expenditure of a huge sum of money. The Government party had a double object to gain in securing the election of a minister and the defeat of a man whom they cordially hate on account of his vigorous attacks on their corrupt practices and their maladministration of the country's affairs.

WM. ANGUS DEAD.

He Passes Peacefully Away at Los Angeles —Will be Buried There.

Death has removed another well known Victorian, Mr. Wm. Angus, who passed peacefully into the last sleep at Los Angeles, Cala., this morning. The deceased was a brother to Messrs. Forrest and James Angus, of this city, and to R. B. Angus, of the C.P.R. Co., Montreal. He came to Victoria about eight years ago, and shortly afterwards formed a partnership with Mr. Henry Croft, in the sawmill business at Chemainus, which the firm carried on until a few years ago. Since that time Mr. Angus has not been engaged in business. Last fall an internal cancer, which had been slowly developing, was operated upon at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, and for a time the patient appeared to be better. Several months ago, with the hope that a change of climate would be beneficial, deceased went to Southern California but the fatal disease had undermined his strength and he gradually became weaker until the end came.

The late Wm. Angus was 51 years of age. He leaves a wife and one child, about 12 months old. Mrs. Angus is the eldest daughter of H. Dunckley, L. L.D., one of the best known political writers in England.

The deceased gentleman possessed a fine literary taste and was, during his residence in England, a frequent contributor to the press. Under the nom de plume, "Promotion of Merit," he wrote many letters to the Manchester Examiner and Times on the "Sale of Church Livings." These letters were reprinted in book form at the request of the leading Liberals of Lancashire, and they created such a sensation that the House of Lords appointed a select committee to enquire into the system. They went to show that the presentation of livings in the Church of England instead of being managed by the Bishops and the great land owners, were really in the management of county attorneys and London pawnbrokers, most of the latter being of an ancient and honorable race. The Hon. John Bright took the book to his relative, Mr. A. E. Latham, the member for Huddersfield, and suggested that he should take the question in to the House of Commons, and when the Spectator, the organ of the high church party, gave that gentleman credit for being the first seriously to make a movement against the system, he wrote to that paper that the credit was not due to him but to William Angus.

The deceased possessed social traits that made him a favorite among a large circle of friends. He was an earnest Liberal, was well informed on all current topics, and was a most agreeable conversationalist. His death will be sincerely deplored by many. The remains will be interred at Los Angeles.

A missing debenture has added a new interest to the Heslop tragedy. The debenture was for $1000 and was sold by the late John Riddel to Treasurer Heslop, of Ancaster, in July, 1888. The debenture was No. 200 and registered by the Land Banking and Loan company. It is thought that the debenture must have been stolen from the township treasurer's house on the night he was murdered.

One of Toronto's oldest residences, a historic landmark, has had to give way before the onward march of improvement. On Saturday last the work of demolition commenced. The house is situated at the northeast corner of Adelaide and John streets, and was erected in 1818 by Hon. Alexander Macdonald, who resided there until the time of his death in 1842. His family continued in possession until 1863, when his son, Alexander Macdonald, clerk of the process office, Osgoode hall, sold it to James Paterson. James Bethune and Mrs. Scott have since been successively proprietors. A row of houses will be shortly erected.—Toronto World.

According to a Quebec correspondent it was only when Hon. Mr. Blake, who had accepted his defence before the assizes at Ottawa, insisted upon it, that McGreevy declined the nomination in Quebec West. The correspondent adds: "Mr. Blake believed that even if elected McGreevy could not hold his seat, and that, moreover, his appearance in Ottawa after the re assembling of Parliament would be a signal for his immediate arrest upon the speaker's warrant issued last session, and which has only remained inoperative during the recess of Parliament. Should McGreevy decide to appear at the bar of the House, Mr. Blake will accompany him there."

Three thousand enthusiastic people attended the political meeting addressed by Mercier in Tara Hall, Quebec, on Monday night. He promised his hearers to bridge the St. Lawrence, and denied that the English-speaking electors were opposed to him. He enumerated what his government had done for them and ridiculed the efforts of the Conservatives to shew that he must have been corrupt to have become rich. He said that the Baie des Chaleurs scandal was invented in the Senate to divert attention from the Conservative corruption, and warned the "tyrant" Angers to beware, and said that all he craved was an opportunity of legislating the people of Quebec into a state of supreme happiness.

Story of a Vivandiere.

Mlle. Louise de Beaulieu has been permitted to sell matches in the streets of Paris because she lost an arm by a gunshot wound in 1870 and has been decorated with the military medal and eight other medals for saving life by her intrepidity and heroism. She is fifty years of age, and she has earned a living by calling marketmen up at early morning hours in the neighborhood where she dwelt. More than twenty years ago she joined a regiment as a vivandiere, and she was in eight battles. Once she was held as a spy at St. Denis and sentenced to be shot. She refused to have her eyes bandaged, and asked to be allowed to give the command to fire. An officer who admired her pluck saved her life. In one of the battles she attended to twenty-five wounded men, and lost her arm at Champaigny while carrying a soldier to an ambulance. After her return from the battlefield she saved a child from the sixth story of a burning building in Paris.

Progress in China.

There is now in China a comprehensive system of telegraph lines running to all parts of the country. The governors of the provinces keep watch over the lines, and take care that they are maintained in working order. The Pekin government is now preparing to establish a railroad system not less comprehensive, with main and branch lines extending over the empire from its northern boundary to the seaboard. Ship loads of rails have arrived at Shanghai within the past few months, and it is reported that the work of laying them will be begun early next year

A Pure Baking Powder.

A baking powder that can be depended upon to be free from lime and and alum is a desideratum in these days of adulterated food. So far as can be judged from the official reports, the "Royal" seems to be the only one yet found by chemical analyses to be entirely without one or the other of these substances, and absolutely pure. This, it is shown, results from the exclusive use by its manufacturers of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal," the manufacturers of which control the patents under which it is refined.

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. government, who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders, and whose intimate knowledge of the ingredients of all those sold in this market enables him to speak authoritatively, says of the purity, wholesomeness, and superior quality of the "Royal:"

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substance."

Prof. Love's tests, and the recent official tests by both the United States and Canadian Governments, show the Royal Baking Powders to be superior to all others in strength and leavening power. It is not the most economical in use, but makes the purest, finest flavored and most wholesome food.

Divorce Suit.

The divorce suit of Scott vs. Scott and McCartney was to-day again tried before Mr. Justice Crease. The order was made absolute; $1000 is to be retained in court and invested by guardians to be appointed for the benefit of the children, and $250 goes to the petitioner.

In the evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, there will be a concert, in which the school children will sing in costume the vocal waltz, "Fairy Voices." The stage will be arranged to look as much like fairyland as possible. Refreshments are to be served in the interval. The admission to the concert is 25 cents, which includes refreshments.

A Daring Deed.

A runaway, which promised tragical consequences, took place on Government street, near Fort, yesterday afternoon. An able-bodied horse attached to a cart tore down the street in a way to remind one of the chariot race in Ben Hur. Everything was shaping for a grand smash up when a man named Walker sprang forward and, at the imminent risk of his life, stopped the maddened animal in its furious career. The deed was witnessed by hundreds and everyone was loud in praise of the man's courageous act. He was slightly injured, but not seriously enough to prevent him walking home.

Coal for the Warships.

Admiral Hotham, of H. M. S. Warspite, writing from the Galapagos islands, off the west coast of South America, to a gentleman in Ottawa in reference to the use of coal from Anthracite or Canmore by the men-of-war on the Pacific station, says: "It is not likely that Canadian Anthracite coal will be used on Her Majesty's ships, as there is a large stock of Welsh coal now at Esquimalt, and the distance Canmore coal has to be transported to the Canadian coast makes the price very little different to that of Cardiff coal obtained from England. Moreover, a suitable steaming coal for the fleet can be obtained at a very short distance from the depot at Esquimalt."

Apology.

In the issue of the TIMES of the 6th inst., and under the heading, "Nanaimo News," there appeared an article entitled "Sequel to the Elopement," which severely reflected on a colored gentleman and his wife, who were recently married at Wellington. We learned to-day for the first time that the statements contained in this article were wholly untrue. We very greatly regret the publication of the item and willingly withdraw the charges made against the parties concerned. Unfortunately, it is not possible to verify the truth of every article received for publication, and it sometimes happens, as in this case, that an injury, unintentional on the part of the publisher and reporter, is done to innocent people. The present incident is one of that kind.

A Man of Varied Accomplishments.

What constitutes a good, all-round, popular man is differently definable by different people. There was a small crowd of gentlemen waiting at the corner of Fort and Government streets last night, for the late car, and one of them mentioned the name of a gentleman whose interests are bound up in the shipping and contracting business. "Yes, there's a man," said one, "who is every inch a man. He can do anything." "Should say so," remarked another, removing his Havana to blow a cloud of fragrant smoke among the stars. "He can play the fiddle first rate, dance like spring heeled jack, cook steak and onions better than anybody I ever met." "Ever taste his flapjacks?" queried another. "Best locomotive engineer going," said another, "yes, and civil engineer, too." "Yes," struck in still another, "and he drinks whiskey and can tight like Sam Hill." The whole crowd laughed and boarded the car which just then arrived.

"Something Worth Hearing."

This will be the title of a lecture to be given on Thursday evening next commencing at 8 o'clock by Mr. Joe Hess, the ex prize fighter, in Temperance Hall, Pandora avenue. The building in Vancouver where Mr. Hess lectured last night was filled to the doors. Those wishing a seat Thursday evening will need to go early.

A Noble Specimen.

Curator John Fannin, of the Provincial Museum, is busy upon the latest addition to the collection. This is a magnificent specimen of the American elk (Cervus Canadensis) shot a short time ago at Duncan Bay by a lumberman in the employ of Mr. King of that place. It is a bull elk, and Mr. Fannin says the largest and finest he ever saw, and he has seen many. The animal measures ten feet high from fore hoofs to base of horns, and girths seven feet. The live weight was about 1200 pounds. An ox that girths seven feet will weigh 1500. The circumference of the horns at the base is twelve inches, this fact alone demonstrating the mammoth proportions of the animal. The head is crowned with a splendid pair of antlers, presenting a very noble sight. The hoofs are black and glossy, the limbs massive and well-proportioned, while the coat is thick, rough and of the dun color peculiar to the elk species. It is unnecessary to state that Mr. Fannin is producing a lifelike semblance of the living animal and that it will be one of the most striking ornaments of the fine collection now in the museum.

Caused by Cancers.

Cancers have during the last 24 hours caused the death of two Victorians. The first occurred at 8 o'clock last night, when Mrs. Cavin, wife of Thomas Cavin, of Burnside road, died, after several years suffering from cancer. She was a native of Belfast, Ireland, aged 50 years, and was well known in Victoria, having made herself popular among all classes by her charitable disposition. A husband and three sons are left to mourn the loss of a kind mother. The second victim, Mr. E. Cook, died at the Jubilee Hospital at 9 o'clock this morning from cancer in the stomach. He had been ailing for about eight days, the only time for years that he had felt unwell. The doctors did not know what was the matter until last night and then he was beyond the hope of saving. He was a native of Bavaria, aged 58 years, and had been in the province for four years. For some time he was employed with Lenz & Leiser, after which he opened a store on Yates street, subsequently moving to Wellington, where he was interested in business. He had lived in Madison, Wis., for 25 years before coming to Victoria.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Things of Interest Happening in the World of Harmony and in the Theatres.

Splendid Presentation of Captain Swift, the Powerful Society Creation.

Captain Swift is a strong and interesing play. The performance last evening at the Victoria was a revelation to the playgoers of this city. The large audience present frequently took occasion to show their deep appreciation. Briefly related, the plot is that Mr. Wilding, an unknown adventurer from Australia, gains entrance to the family of Mr. Seabrook, moving in the upper walks of society, through saving that gentleman's life in a runaway in London. Wilding is handsome, of good manners, bold, suave and everything else that makes the ideal adventurer. He lays seige to the heart of Miss Stella Darbishier, neice of Seabrook. Young Mr. Harry Seabrook, also desperately in love with Miss Darbishier, has from the first taken a strong dislike to the handsome Australian, forgets his native good breeding on several occasions, and has several exciting and very amusing rencontres with him. Mrs. Seabrook has an indefinable fondness for the man. The introduction of Mr. Gardner, a wealthy young Queenslander, quickens the life of the plot. He suspects Wilding to be the celebrated bush ranger, Captain Swift, who "held him up" on Dingo Flats, Queensland, years before, but spared his life. Gardner sets to work to sound Wilding by continually referring to Captain Swift. The keen fencing of wits between the two men is splendidly done by Messrs. Forrest and Craig. The cunning and readiness of Wilding baffles every effort of Gardner, still, that gentleman's suspicions are strengthened every moment. But Gardner pities Wilding; he recognizes the good points about the fellow and determines not to abandon him to pitiless justice if he can help it.

The footman, Marshall, early in the play, discovers that Wilding is his long lost foster brother, whom he bears a grudge. Wilding injudiciously tells a story of his Queensland experiences and Marshall overhears it. The servant assumes the odious role of spy, blackmailer and informer. He dogs Wilding's footsteps and at length goads the adventurer to such fury that Wilding almost chokes him to death. The plot thickens; Mrs. Seabrook discovers by indubitable proois that Wilding is her own son, who was cast out, a foundling, shortly after his birth. The scene at this point is extremely touching. Miss Earle as Mrs. Seabrook displays rare powers of emotional acting; a hush like death falls over the audience as the two powerful players face each other at this climax, and the marvellous play of expression is seen on their faces as the light dawns upon Wilding's mind, and hope that she will not be scorned, upon the mashers. Next comes Mr. Ryan, the Australian detective, seeking a clue to Wilding's whereabouts. Gardner, although now convinced of Wilding's identity with Swift, nobly refuses to give Ryan any information. Ryan's efforts are, however, successful; he comes to Mr. Seabrook with all the papers and the warrant for Wilding's arrest.

It is a rare scene, that where old Seabrook hands Wilding the documents. The cool daring of the man saves him; quickly, noiselessly tearing out the warrant from the centre of the bundle he lights a cigarette with it, with exquisite ease and coolness. The detective's face is a study when he comes to present the warrant a little latter. Events now crowd upon one another. Wilding adandoning all hope of success, flies from the home of the Seabrooks and wanders penniless on the streets of London. He finds Gardner's rooms, meets his mother there; the detectives are thundering at the door; his friends bid him fly; he steps behind the portierre, a pistol shot is heard and Wilding, mortally wounded, reels back into the room and falls dead at his mother's feet. She passionately presses her lips to the dead man's forehead, and so, tragically, ends this powerful conception.

Mr. Arthur Forrest plays the part of Wilding to perfection. His stage presence is most impressive. The piece might have been written for him it fits him so well. He combines the elegance and handsomeness of Robert B. Mantell with many of his characteristics of his famous namesake Edwin Forrest. There should be a packed house tonight to see Mr. Forrest in his powerful impersonation, and supported by a really excellent company.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Electric light was used for the first time last night in the Victoria Theatre. The connections are not yet complete; this fact probably accounted for the vagaries of the "unexplainable force" during the third act of "Captain Swift." Then all the lights in the house went out after a few spasmodic flickerings. The only illumination in the big theatre was the lamp on the table on the stage and the corpse candles in discarded rye bottles on the stairs outside. The light returned after a few minutes, greatly to the relief of all. The gas had been shut off in the afternoon; the management trusted solely to the fickle electricity.

IN AID OF THE ORGAN FUND.

A well attended and pleasant entertainment was given in the Victoria West Methodist church last evening in aid of the organ fund of that church. A stereopticon exhibition by Postmaster Shakespeare, interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections, made up a complete and pleasing programme.

FOR CHARITY'S SAKE.

The Amateur Minstrels, who for weeks past have been practising, will on Thursday evening appear for the first time at the Victoria theatre. They have a chorus of 60 voices and a full orchestra, which, with a number of amusing specialties, will afford a pleasant entertainment. The company will also appear on Saturday night. They had a full dress rehearsal to-day, which proved that their labors have not been wasted. The proceeds will go towards the released prisoners' fund and in aid of Mrs. Gault, widow of the late Capt. Gault.

FRIDAY EVENING'S CONCERT.

The ladies of the R. C. Cathedral are taking no pains to make a success of the concert to be held in the new R. C. Cathedral on Friday evening. The concert was arranged for the purpose of securing funds for a memorial window for the late Archbishop Seghers, which good object in addition to the splendid programme to be provided should help to draw a large audience. There will be solos and choruses interspersed with tableaux and minuets by the children, to be followed by singing the Mother Goose melodies in costume. Prof. Hildergree's kinder symphony will assist in making all, who attend, enjoy themselves.

ANOTHER STOCK COMPANY PROPOSED.

Negotiations were in progress to-day between Mr. James Collins, manager of the Victoria theatre, and Mr. Arthur Forrest's company with regard to the company remaining here as a stock organization. This company can claim to be in every respect first class; their repertoire includes many of the first plays, favorites with the London public, and in every department of dramatic art, tragedy, comedy, burlesque and society plays. With this company playing regularly at the Victoria, theatre goers here would be in great luck and would not have to depend upon occasional visits from travelling companies to hear a really good play. From what could be learned up to the hour of going to press, there was a strong likelihood of satisfactory arrangements being made. Manager Collins declared that it would be a splendid spec if it could be brought about. The proposal is to include the whole company, stars as well.

NOTES.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers will appear at the Victoria on the 14th of March.

Darrell Vinton has retired from Rice's Stock company. A first-class man from San Francisco will take his place.

Two or three gentlemen in the audience at the Victoria last night had gone there evidently primed up for a roaring farce. Their hilarity drew the attention of the house to them several times when their musical guffaws and melodious horse laughter broke out during the most pathetic and thrilling scenes.

Many admiring comments were passed upon the handsome stage sittings at the Victoria last evening. The conservatory scene in particular drew forth much praise. Mr. Buchan, the new scenic artist now on the Victoria staff, painted the whole scene in six hours. That scene will stand a monument to Mr. Buchan's indomitable energy and unquestionable talent.

THE ALDERMANIC BOARD.

A Trio of Motions that will be Attended to This Evening.

Ald. Munn has given notice that he will at this evening's meeting of the council move that the city surveyor be instructed to prepare estimates of the cost of opening Wallace street.

The same aldermau will also move:

That whereas, the Dominion Government has refused to make any provision for the care, guarding and segregating of lepers within the province, and has alleged that the matter is one placed entirely within the control of the Provincial Government under the British North America Act, and whereas the safe keeping, guarding and segregating of lepers is necessary to the protection of the people of Victoria and the province generally from a loathsome disease;

Therefore be it resolved that the representatives of the city in the local legislature be requested to urge upon the Government the justice and necessity of establishing and maintaining a lazaretto at Darcey Island or some other place, and of making regulations for the apprehension of lepers and for their confinement to the lazaretto.

Ald. Lovell has given notice of his intention to move that the city clerk and water commissioner be instructed to produce all contracts, statements and papers in regard to the 24-inch water main and other mains adjacent to the Saanich road.

Cash Jewelry Store.

"The Pennock Diamond Hall," Doane Block, opposite Odd Fellows' Hall, Douglas street, is now open with a full line of jewelry, watches and silverware. The business will be continued on a strictly cash basis, which means smaller profits for the proprietors and better prices for purchasers. Customers are sure to be suited, as Mr. Pennock is a practical manufacturer. tf.

THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Returns Show That 30,000 Acres of Land Were Applied for During the Past Month.

Hon. Mr. Beaven's Motion Not to Allow These Applications is Snowed Under.

The Premier Thinks it no Harm to Let Speculators Get Away With a Bit of Land.

TUESDAY, February 23.

The Speaker took the chair at two o'clock.

Prayers were read by Rev. J. E. Gardiner.

Mr. Sword presented a petition from the New Westminster and Vancouver Tramway Company.

Mr. Kellie presented a petition from the residents and mine owners of Kootenay Lake for the incorporation of an hospital for Nelson.

Mr. Martin presented a report of the committee on standing rules and private bills, reporting favorably on the private bill to incorporate the Nelson Electric Light Co. The report was received and adopted.

Mr. Horne moved the following resolution:—

Whereas the citizens of the City of Vancouver desire to have a militia corps established in their city;

And whereas there are many able-bodied young men in the said city who are willing and anxious to join a militia corps, and 350 of them have actually enrolled themselves for that purpose;

Therefore, be it resolved, That a respectful address be presented to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, praying him to strongly urge the Dominion Government to make all necessary arrangements for the establishment of a militia corps in the city of Vancouver; and that His Honor be further respectfully requested to transmit a copy of the address and of this resolution to the Minister of Militia at Ottawa.

Mr. Horne said his object in moving the resolution was to help the hands of those who were endeavoring to organize a corps of militia in Vancouver. There were objects in the way which it was important should be removed. Vancouver was the only city in the Province without a militia corps and in this respect he wished to have it placed on the same footing as the other cities.

Mr. Cottin, in seconding the motion, said that such a patriotic movement should be encouraged and he had no doubt the resolution would meet with the approval of the House.

Hon. Mr. Robson and Col. Baker also spoke in favor of the resolution, pointing out that the establishment of a militia corps in Vancouver could not prove other than beneficial to the cities of the whole Province, as well as the city of Vancouver.

The resolution carried unanimously.

Mr. Brown introduced a bill to make certain provisions in respect of city municipalities.

ON THE LAND BILL.

Mr. Beaven asked the House to suspend the rules of order in order that he might move a resolution in regard to the Land Bill.

Mr. Vernon said he had no objection, but he did not think the motion necessary, as the information Mr. Beaven wanted could be obtained in the Gazette.

No objection being offered the rules were suspended.

Mr. Beaven then moved, that an order of the House be granted showing the names of persons and acreage of land which will be affected by the question as to whether 28th January, 1892, or 22nd February, 1892, be inserted in section 13 of the Land Act, 1892.

The motion carried, and Hon. Mr. Vernon proceeded to the Land and Works offices to have the necessary information brought down.

Mr. Semlin was down on the order papers to move on consideration of the Land Bill to strike out section 9, referring to pastoral leases; but owing to the action of the Government in anticipating his motion, and shutting out the lease clause, he withdrew the motion, taking the opportunity of congratulating the Government on the facility with which they changed their minds, and hoping they would come round by other agitators movements until they were fully in accord with the Opposition.

Hon. Mr. Beaven moved to amend section 6 of the Land Act by striking out the words "Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works" and inserting instead "Lieutenant-Governor in Council."

Mr. Beaven said it had always been the rule in the province, and he believed it should be adhered to.

Mr. Vernon said he had no particular objection to the change; except that it would leave a lot of work for the executive which ought to be done by the department.

The motion carried and the section was amended as proposed.

Mr. Sword moved to add at the end of section 6 the following:

"Provided, however, that any person as defined under section 1 of this act, shall be entitled to record or pre-empt any land included in any timber lease granted prior to the passing of this act, if the land which it is proposed to record has not on each eighty acres thereof of milling timber to the extent of more than ten thousand feet per acre. Such pre-emptor shall, however, only be entitled during the term of the lease to cut such timber as he may require for use upon his claim; and if he cut timber on the said land for sale, or for any purpose other than for such use as aforesaid or for the purpose of clearing the said land, he shall absolutely forfeit all interest in the land acquired by him, and the Commissioner may cancel his claim thereto."

Mr. Vernon maintained that this proposed amendment or addition to the clause had been pronounced against by the House and he did not think it should be discussed again.

The motion was put and lost on the following vote:

Yeas—Semlin, Milne, McKenzie, Beaven, Brown, Foster, Keith, Kelly, Cotton, Kitchen, Sword.—11.

Nays—Punch, Horne, Smith, Baker, Robson, Pooley, Turner, Davie, Eberts, Booth, Hall, Nason, Fletcher, Anderson, Rogers, Croft, Hunter.—17.

Hon. Mr. Beaven moved to strike out section 12 of the Land Act, which reads as follows: "It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time to make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the statute, for carrying into effect and operation the true intent and meaning of the Land Act and amendments thereto, and such rules and regulations shall from time to time be published in the British Columbia Gazette and signed by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, and shall have the effect and force of law."

Hon. Mr. Beaven said he objected to the section because he thought the power of legislating should be confined to the House; and it was a well established principle in the Province that the legislature should control all matters with regard to lands in the Province. The laws should be plain in this respect so that their interpretation need not be left to the Chief Commissioner or Lieutenant Governor. He knew the Hon. Chief Commissioner was good natured and might give a little to his friends.

Mr. Vernon said he did not ask for any powers that could be avoided; but it was impossible to lay down hard and fast rules. He did not think his honorable friend, Mr. Beaven, had made a success of it when he was Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works.

The motion was voted upon and lost on the following division:

Yeas—Semlin, Milne, Beaven, Brown, Keith, Kellie, Cotton, Sword, McKenzie, Forster—10.

Nays—Smith, Horne, Baker, Robson, Pooley, Turner, Davie, Eberts, Martin, Croft, Vernon, Hunter, Booth, Rogers, Hall, Anderson, Fletcher, Nason—18.

VICTORIA CITY ELECTION BILL.

On consideration of the report of the Victoria City Election Bill Hon. Mr. Davie moved to amend section 2, to confine the right to claim costs to petitions pending at the time of the act.

The motion carried and the report as amended was adopted.

ON THE SCHOOL BILL.

The House went into committee on the School Bill, Mr. Kitchen in the chair.

Mr. Robson moved to amend the bill by inserting as section 13, a clause to provide for the election of a chairman to school boards at the first meeting of the board on a majority vote of the trustees. The chairman to have no vote except when a tie occurred.

Mr. Beaven said he would prefer that the chairman should have a vote on all occasions, and that when a tie occurred the question at issue should be declared negatived. The best man on the board might be sheived by appointing him chairman.

Mr Brown agreed with the leader of the Government, and expressed himself as favoring this principle of voting on municipal councils. By it the chairman held the balance of power, and if a good man his influence would not be lost.

The motion carried and the bill was amended as proposed.

Hon. Mr. Robson moved that "Section 32 of the Public School Act, 1891, shall be and is hereby repealed."

The honorable members, he said, would see that this clause allowed for the levying of a rate. The leader of the Opposition had pointed out that this section was impracticable, and it was more, it was useless. The moneys required for school purposes could be taken out of the regular revenues.

The motion carried and the bill was amended as proposed.

On motion of Mr. Brown sub-section 34 of section 17 was amended by striking out the words "31st day of January" and substituting the words "1st day of March," to allow more time for the board to prepare estimates; and on motion of Hon. Mr. Davie the same clause was amended by striking out the words "and upon such approval the proceedings authorized by section 32, and all proceedings subsequent thereto, shall be taken in due order."

On motion of Hon. Mr. Robson the committee rose and reported the bill complete with amendments.

THE LAND BILL AGAIN.

Hon. Mr. Vernon presented the returns asked for by the Hon. Mr. Beaven, which were read by the Clerk.

They showed that from the 28th of January till February 22nd there had been 106 applications for lands, aggregating about 30,000 acres.

This Mr. Vernon said was not unusual, as there were other months in the year when as many applications were made. Then of these 106 applications there were numbers which could not be entertained and would be ruled out.

Hon. Mr. Beaven then moved to amend section 13 of the act to amend the Land Act by striking out "22nd February" and inserting "28th January."

Mr. Beaven speaking to the motion claimed that if it was the intention of the Government to prevent speculation in lands in the public interests it should stop the sale in these lands as soon as it was announced that the change was to take place. The fact that in the interval of one month from the time it was announced in the speech from the throne that it was proposed to amend the Land Act, there were applications for 30,000 acres of land, showed that it was necessary in the public interests to take this stand. It was fortunate that these returns were brought down, as he was sure that there were few who had any idea of the great amount of land applied for. Hon. Mr. Vernon said that during his (Mr. Beaven's) term of Chief Commissioner, he did not make a success of it. They, however, had the satisfaction of being elected twice and he had left nothing in his record to be ashamed of. He felt sympathy for the present Chief Commissioner when that minister in the witness box under oath, showed his lamentable ignorance with regard to the land laws of the province. He did not say this in an unfriendly way, but just to return a compliment given him by the Chief Commissioner.

Col. Baker said he thought it would do an injustice to the people in the upper country if Mr. Beaven's motion carried. There were many who had gone to the trouble of locating lands in good faith who would be deprived of what was practically their right.

Mr. Kellie said he agreed with Col. Baker, and he hoped that his honorable friend would help him out in trying to secure the rights of those who in good faith had located lands in the Slocan, before the Government slapped on the reserve. If the men who made application up to the 22nd inst. for lands in other places should have their applications allowed, there could certainly be no reason why those who applied for lands in the Slocan should not get the land.

Hon. Mr. Robson said this motion had nothing to do with the Slocan reserve pudding. That land was under reservation, and this question did not affect the arrangement. As read in the Kootenay Star that the hon. member for West Kootenay would in all likelihood figure prominently in a transaction not at all in the public interests, and he had only to say that when the true inwardness of this Slocan or Nelson grab was made public those who had championed the cause of these grabbers would feel that it would have been better had they never interested themselves in it.

Mr. Kellie, by way of explanation, said everyone knew of the Columbia & Kootenay railway bill by which the railway was granted 10,000 acres in four mile square blocks. He had asked for maps showing the land thus taken up, but none were forthcoming. It would be a surprise to the public to see how these lands were taken up by the railway company, when it was found that there were lands in the Slocan not taken up by the railway the Government at once proceeded to slap on a reserve, and the poor miner, the man who discovered the country, was left out. It would be seen that if this railway built any extensions they would get more land. The railway was only waiting to scoop in all the lands.

Mr. Davie said if hon. members took the trouble to read this land grab act they would see that if provided that the railway company could only select unoccupied, unacquired and unreserved lands, and that in putting on this reserve the Government just placed the land where the railway could not get it.

Mr. Kellie said that section 12 of the Land Act in taking the reserve off lands in Kootenay then left the land so that the railway could take it up.

Hon. Mr. Vernon said he had explained all this before and he did not understand how it was Mr. Kellie made the mistake in thinking this referred to the Slocan reserve. It applied to the reserve on lands along the C. & K. Railway from Robson to Nelson.

Mr. Semlin expressed surprise at the Government's sensitiveness when anything was said about the Slocan reserve. It was strange that the Government allowed the C. & K. Railway to take up 400 per cent. mord land than they were entitled to at first; but this was a peculiarity of the Government. When the policy of the Government was promulgated at the beginning of the session a change in the land law was proposed. They asked the House to support this policy and now asked them to go go through it. If they wished to stop selling lands they should do so at once. There would be no hardship inflicted on settlers. They could hold the land until the Government had it surveyed and then purchase it if they wished to do so.

Hon. Mr. Robson characterized the remarks of the Opposition as unfair. They charged the Government with dishonesty and improper motives; and the hon. member for West Kootenay had predicted that it would be seen that the Government had had motives in view, and would certainly give away lands to the C. & K. railway. With regard to Mr. Beaven's motion he held it would not be fair to men in the interior who had gone to the trouble and expense of staking lands according to law to say they should not have it. They were certainly entitled to some consideration. This work could not be done in the interior during the past month, where the ground was covered with snow. It would not do much harm to let a few speculators get away with a bit of land, and it would be better that a few should be benefited in this way than that a large number should be deprived of what they were entitled to by equity if not by law.

In reply to Hon. Mr. Davie, Mr. Kellie read the following telegram:

VICTORIA, Jan. 14.—W. Gosher Allen, Nelson. —Your telegram received. Reserve put on to prevent speculation in agricultural lands until legislation can be obtained to secure them for actual settlers. Reserve will be lifted in early spring. JNO. ROBSON.

Mr. Kellie intimated that it would be seen when this reserve was lifted it would be that the C. & K. railway might get it.

Mr. Brown held that the Government had no reason to complain of the action of the Opposition or Independents. They had honestly endeavored to assist the Government in good legislation. Honorable members of the Opposition had reason to feel indignant at the manner in which they had been treated by the Government, who instead of giving information when asked to do so, only made the merest insinuations. He agreed with the Premier that all those who applied for land during the past month should not have what was their right acquired under the law cut away with one fell swoop. But these arguments applied to the Slocan reserve. Why should the Premier make the unsupported statement that the men who applied for land in the Slocan were speculators, and that the more recent applications were all right.

Mr. Hall supported the argument of the Government side, declaring that Mr. Kellie should not be allowed to act like an unruly boy from school, and jump down the throats of the Government.

Mr. Keith opposed Mr. Hall, remarking that it might be as well to bring down in the estimates an appropriation for a set of boxing gloves. Mr. Hall was doing exactly what he charged Mr. Kellie with doing.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Beaven's motion was lost on the following vote:

Yeas—Semlin, Milne, Beaven, Sword, Kitchen, Cotton, Keith—7.

Nays—Pooley, Turner, Martin, Croft, Hunter, Rogers, Anderson, Fletcher, Nason, Hall, Booth, Eberts, Vernon, Davie, Robson, Horne, Smith, Baker, Kellie, Punch.

The report on the Land Bill was read and adopted.

Mr. Kitchen's bill to amend the Game Act was called.

Mr. Hall asked if he would be allowed to amend a clause in the act in committee on Mr. Kitchen's bill.

Mr. Beaven objected to all sorts of amendments being brought in in committee.

Hon. Mr. Turner said he intended to bring in a bill to amend the whole game law, and the matter was dropped.

ESQUIMALT WATER WORKS BILL.

Mr. Croft moved the second reading of the bill to amend the Esquimalt Water Works Act. The water supply of the company was not sufficient, he said, for either domestic or manufacturing purposes, and it was necessary to get a better supply.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said he hoped the Government would not allow this bill to pass. It would not be right to grant the request of this corporation. By section 1 it would be seen that the company proposed to divert water from Goldstream river and its tributaries. He did not think the House would take away the right from Victoria, which it acquired by the Water Works Act of 1883, of the right to appropriate for the city all water within a radius of 20 miles. Goldstream river was within this radius. The city had surveys made of this river and it was proposed to divert this river into Langford lake and from there bring it to the city. The Esquimalt Water Works Co. proposed to supply Victoria West. He believed the city should have the right to supply the people with water within its boundaries, and not a private company. The city had vested rights to this water which should not be taken away. The House had already dealt liberally with this company, and they had now as large a supply of water as Victoria. To the shareholders of this company this acquiring of more water was referred to as a speculative enterprise, and such should not be allowed to control the water supply of a city like Victoria. A great deal of the debt of Victoria was incurred in getting a water supply and perfecting its system, and he hoped the House would not do anything that would do injustice to the city.

Mr. Hunter said there were two principles to be recognized in the bill, the protecting of Victoria's interests and the encouragement of enterprise. The Goldstream system was rejected long ago by the city of Victoria, and as for Langford Lake it was found to be a dirty, filthy puddle. The people of Victoria West did not want Victoria water; the Esquimalt company supplied them with good water. Victoria should not monopolize the water of the whole country, and it had no right to Goldstream. This stream and its tributaries carried 13,500,000 gallons of water per day for six months in the year, sufficient to supply 450,000 people with water for a year.

Mr. Davie said he opposed the second reading of the bill. The bill was practically out of order for the House was preparing to deal with a private bill by granting public property. Any donation of public lands must be made by a public measure; and private rights acquired by a private act could not be encroached on by a private bill. Mr. Hunter had said that Goldstream carried enough water for 450,000 people; but he said nothing of the manufactories it would supply. Water was needed for this. The city had the vested right to take water when they wanted it, and it would be against the public inrerest to allow these rights to be encroached on.

Mr. Pooley opposed Mr. Davie and Mr. Beaven's arguments. He held that the city had no right to the water asked for. They claimed the right for nearly 20 years and never used it. This was a dog in the manger policy to claim a right to it when others wished to use it.

Mr. Turner said he was surprised to hear Mr. Hunter, an alderman of the city, arguing against the interests of the city. But his arguments went to show that the stream referred to was more valuable than was generally supposed, and the House would make a serious mistake if it proposed to take away the rights of the city to this water.

Mr. Brown also spoke against the bill. It would be wrong, he held, to jeopardise the city's chances of getting a good supply of water.

Mr. Booth and Mr Martin supported Mr. Hunter's argument and the bill.

On motion of Dr. Milne, the debate was adjourned and the House adjourned at 5.50.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

Mr. Horne—To ask leave to introduce a bill entitled an Act to Amend the County Court Act.

Mr. Kitchen—Whereas for many years past gravel bars and driftwood in the Fraser River, between Popcum and Mission, have caused the rapid current of the said river to cut away a large extent of valuable land and have also caused the overflow by the said river of thousands of acres of agricultural lands in the district of New Westminster, thereby causing great loss to the agricultural interests of the said district, and also greatly interfering with the navigation of the said river; therefore be it resolved, That a respectful address be presented to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, requesting him to strongly urge upon the Dominion Government the necessity of immediate action being taken to remedy the evil complained of by dredging out the gravel bars and removing the driftwood in the said river and that His Honor be further respectfully requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Minister of the Public Works at Ottawa.

Mr. Kellie—That whereas American Indians do hunt along the Arrow lakes and Columbia River to the exclusion of the Indians of Kootenay, be it resolved that the Government instruct its officials to see that the collection of $50 per head for non-resident hunters be made.

Mr. Horne—Asking leave to introduce a bill entitled, "An act relating to certain public works in the district of Surrey."

NOTICE OF QUESTION.

Mr. Milne—To ask the Provincial Secretary: (1). If the returns in reference to the Behring Sea sent to the House include all the telegrams and communications sent or received, especially with reference to the claims for compensation by sealers of vessels or cargoes? (2). Were any telegrams or any correspondence sent or received on or about March 1, 1890, in reference to the above?

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

KASLO CITY

This young and thriving City is situated on Kootenay Lake at the mouth of Kaslo River, within close proximity to the famous Kaslo and Slocan mines.

The discoveries during the present year of numerous mines of remarkably rich ore and great width on Kaslo river and east of Slocan Lake are well known to the public. They have attracted the attention of capitalists and miners all over the continent, and there is no question that these mines, which are tributary to KASLO CITY, will receive more attention than those of any other section of Kootenay.

A spacious hotel has been built for the accommodation of travelers. Stores and other buildings have also been erected. The townsite is being cleared and streets graded so as to forward the large amount of building that will be in progress as soon as material is secured for construction. A trail has been built to the mines, which will be replaced by a wagon road as soon as the work can be prosecuted. The grade to the mines is an easy one. An application for a charter to build a railway line into the mines from Kaslo will be made at the coming session of the Legislature. Everything is being done that circumstances will permit to give easy access to the mines and furnish supplies for the miners. KASLO CITY will have a large population this summer. It will become the supply depot for the richest mining section yet discovered in British Columbia. Unlike many mountain towns, it is most favorably situated on a gentle slope from the waters of a sheltered bay on Kootenay Lake, and is supplied for domestic and manufacturing purposes, by a large stream of pure cold water.

If you wish to participate in the profits that enchanced values will bring, don't fail to invest in Kaslo City. Lots are on sale at the offices of all the Leading Real Estate Brokers in the Province.
